JULY 2006 INTERPRETIVE CALENDAR

ASHLAND STATE PARK

Description of Programs:

July 19th

Hiking And Exploring Your State Parks!

11:00-12:00 PM, Meet at Ashland State Park Headquarters

Explore the trails of Hopkinton, Ashland and Whitehall State Parks with your friends and neighbors! Join us for a leisurely hike and learn more about your state parks' history and natural resources. Hikes of various lengths will be available throughout the summer. Themed hikes are a highlight of this program: tracking, bird-watching, forest ecology and historical interpretation are just a few of those being offered. Join us on Wednesday July 19th, when we will enjoy Ashland State Park. All ages welcome.

Nature Games

3:00-4:00 pm, Meet at the Ashland State Park beach area

Want to have some fun? Want to learn about the outdoors? Spend an hour making friends and learning about how things we do every day affect the natural world around us at Ashland State Park. This fun, active program will be held frequently throughout the summer. Great for ages 8-12, but all ages welcome.
